Life in Canada

Canada _____ (be) a large country with many different kinds of people. There _____ (be) English speaking Canadians and aboriginals. And there are also people from many different countries. In 2001, over 700,000 people _____ (move) from southern Europe to Canada. Around half of them _____ (not/come) from Italy but from Portugal. Then, many immigrants _____ (not/settle) in Vancouver but in Toronto, one of the most multicultural cities on the planet. The city _____ (have) a Little Italy and a Chinatown. In 2001 there _____ (be) almost 300,000 Arab immigrants in Canada. More than half of them _____ (arrive) between 1991 and 2001.

In the following two teenagers _____ (tell) you about what life in Canada _____ (mean) to them.

Pamela, 17 years old: "My family is from Portugal and we _____ (move) here last winter. Sometimes I _____ (go) to community events with my parents and also to a lot of Portuguese restaurants in my area. The community _____ (get) bigger now, so the restaurants are better. The food is OK, but generally it _____ (not taste) like it _____ (do) at home. I always _____ (wish) Portuguese people would come together more often here. People sometimes _____ (ask) me: " _____ (you/ever/miss) your country?" Then I usually _____ (answer): "I mostly _____ (miss) my country and sometimes I _____ (be) quite sad. My friend Josie says that she _____ (not/find) it hard to live here - mostly she _____ (have) a good time. Her brother _____ (be) my boyfriend, he _____ (not/work), It's very difficult to find a job.
